Holocaust & Intolerance Museum of New Mexico in collaboration with the African American Museum and Cultural Center of New Mexico cordially invite you to the New Mexico's African American Legacy: Visible, Vital, and Valuable Exhibition.

This exhibition is a pictorial history of the African Americans who have been in the territory of New Mexico since the Spaniards came with African slaves.

African Americans have migrated to the state seeking greater freedoms as cowboys, trappers, traders, explorers, miners, railroad workers, servants, entrepreneurs, teachers and skilled workers.

This history is filled with richness, dignity, persistence, faith, and perseverance and they provided many contributions to the history of New Mexico.
