Hello all-

In this unit you will find a group of lessons to help you guide your students through Otto Rosenburg's memoir, A Gypsy in Auschwitz. As far as Holocaust memoirs go, it is not as graphic as many and is an easier read that may be more accessible to younger students. That being said, you know your students best, please take a moment to preview the book. The background slideshow is based on extensive research done for my Master's capstone as well as additional research to help make this accessible to high school students.

Some important notes:

- Adjust how you feel is necessary for your class.
- Can be adjusted for middle school or language arts classes
- I am very likely missing some New Mexico State Standards, feel free to adjust to fit what you need!

If there is anything you need, feel free to reach out, we are happy to help!
